

ZEP FINISHES WORLD FLIGHT

CAPTAIN EAKER FORCED DOWN AT CLEVELAND

Transcontinental Endurance Flight Ends
Abruptly.

PILOT INJURED

One Wing of Plane is Shattered in Landing.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 29.—(INS)— Capt. Ira Eaker, who was attempting to set a transcontinental endurance and refueling record, was forced down at the Cleveland airport in his Boeing mail transport plane, "The Shuttle," about midnight last night in a refueling attempt, it was reported early today.

According to witnesses, a five-gallon can of oil dropped from the refueling craft and struck a wing of "The Shuttle" splattering the endurance with oil. A portion of the endurancer's wing was torn away in landing, it was said.

Neither Capt. Eaker or his co-pilot, Lieut. Bernard Thompson, were injured. Airport officials, however, possessed no knowledge of the landing this morning.

"The Shuttle" had completed one leg of the projected flight having flown from Oakland, Cal. to New York. It was to have made its second trip last night.

Captain Eaker was recovering today from minor injuries received in the refueling disaster. His face was slightly scratched when parts of the broken wing struck him in the face, smashing his goggles.

Drenched with oil and nearly blinded Eaker was forced to turn over the control of the plane to his co-pilot, who guided the craft to earth.

Captain Eaker declined to say what his future plans would be with regard to another attempt at breaking the refueling endurance record.
Three other attempts at breaking endurance records were to be made today. One of them will be an attempt by Mrs. Mae Haizlip of Kansas City, to beat the 26-hour record for women, now held by Elinor Smith of New York.

The other two record seekers are Ralph Thomas of Cleveland, and T. C. Reid, of Downey, Cal. Each plans to break the solo endurance flight record for men. Thomas will use a Stinson plane while Reid will fly an Emsco. The present record of 35 hours is held by Lieut. Herbert Fahy.

Hand to the Plough.
Make Him a Broker.
What a Bargain.
Big Business Rolls On.

By ARTHUR BRISANE.
(Copyright, 1929, by King Features Syndicate.)

Jews in America and other countries, worried about coreligionists in Palestine, may find comfort in the fact, as regards future events, that the British empire cannot allow Arabs to defy British authority.

Let Jerusalem riots get beyond control, and the Moslem world becomes convinced of its ability to defy the British, or convinced that the British have had all the fighting they want, and there will be trouble, serious and widespread.

The Jerusalem riots involve not merely the safety of Jews in Palestine but the safety of the British empire wherever Mohammedans are numerous.

LORD ROTHERMERE'S newspapers suggest that Britain repudiate the Palestine mandate and wash its hands of the whole responsibility.

Before repudiating a mandate solemnly, as suggested, Ramsay MacDonald's government should read again the last five verses of the ninth chapter of St. Luke, including these lines:

"No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God."

IF YOU think prosperity will continue—as it will unless foolishness interferes—buy your little boy a seat on some stock exchange.
He will make money as a broker, and his seat while he "sits" in it may make him rich apart from his own work.

You can't say that of many seats.

CHICAGO'S Exchange seats are to be double in number, from 235 to 470, gift for the 235.

Stock exchange seats in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, are double and trebling in value.

A stock broker has such a "clean" business, buying and selling as ordered, a profit on every transaction. Wise brokers don't gamble. They let customers do that.

land will sell Labrador to Canada

WOMAN SEEKS SOLO HONORS IN AIR MEET

Mae Haizlip, Kansas City to Try for Endurance Prize.

90,000 ATTEND

Rim of Ohio Derby
Also on Thursday's Schedule.

BY HOMER H. METZ,
I. N. S. Aviation Editor.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 29.—With the greatest aviation field day in history a thing of the past, interest among the spectators at the national air races today was centered on an attempt by Mae Haizlip, women's derby participant of Kansas City, to wrest the solo endurance flight for women honors away from 15-year-old Elinor Smith of New York.

Miss Haizlip, who failed to finish in the money in the derby was scheduled to go aloft some time this afternoon with the determination not to come down until her feminine constitution or motor compelled her to.

Other events scheduled for the day that are of major importance are the start of the rim-of-Ohio derby, postponed from earlier in the week; dead stick landing contests for women; the finish of the Canadian derby and the possible arrival of some of the flyers in the non-stop Los Angeles-to-Cleveland derby.

Lee Schoenhair, one of the entrants in this last named race, arrived here Tuesday after covering the long hop in slightly less than 14 hours.

Fully 90,000 persons of a description fought, bribed and pushed their way into the grandstand at the airport yesterday.

Things—thrilling, interesting and otherwise—were taking place constantly throughout the day, beginning at 10 o'clock.

REV. BAKER IS LIONS SPEAKER

Pastor Discusses Winona Lake Bible Conference at Dinner.

Bible conference at Winona Lake, Ind., this summer at which Christian unity, world peace and temperance were taken up, was discussed by the Rev. W. H. Baker, pastor of the First Christian church, at the weekly dinner meeting of the Lions club in the grill room of the Travelers' hotel last night.

"Ways and means of settling these questions were not made, but it was the optimistic view of the best speakers of the land, who were gathered here to express their minds on important issues of today, that each problem would be ironed out properly in time," added
Rev. Mr. Baker.

Rev. Baker, who motored with his family to the lake founded by Presbyterian interests 35 years ago, was one of the 700 ministers and evangelists enrolled for the summer. Twenty states and four countries were represented in the conference since it was founded, according to Rev. Baker.

FIREMEN RESCUE MAN AND BABE

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 29.—(INS.)—
A near tragedy was narrowly averted here today by the timely work of firemen in rescuing three persons when a local restaurant caught fire.

The blaze which started when grease caught fire in the kitchen caused such a dense smoke that the dishwasher, Charles C. Leach, was partially overcome by smoke while asleep in the basement of the building.

Leach was injured when he was pulled through an aperture cut in the floor by firemen in order to extricate him.

A 11-month-old baby, Gloria Lee, and her mother, Mrs. Arthur Carter, who occupy an apartment above the restaurant were rescued by firemen when she was imprisoned by smoke and her avenue of escape cut off.

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause." But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderly at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store—Larkins, the Drug Man. Adv.

Take half a teaspoonful in a glass of hot water every morning. Little by little that ugly fat goes—slowly, yes—but surely and you feel so wonderfully healthy, ambitious and energetic—more so than ever before in your life!

Get an 85c bottle of KRUSCHEN SALTS at Carnahan Drug Co., or any drugstore (lasts 2 months). If even this first bottle doesn't convince you this is the best, surest and most pleasant way to lose fat—if your health isn't marvelously improved—your money gladly returned!—Adv.

The road building equipment of the Laughlin Coal & Supply company of Canton has been moved to Jefferson county where the company has the contract for the surfacing of 2.32 miles of Intercounty Highway No. 7 through the villages of Empire and Stratton.

This highway has been graded, and the road opened to traffic for about a year, but is now to be given a brick top at a cost of $116,997.84, the price at which the job was bid at.

Improvement of this highway will give a hard surfaced road from Steubenville to the north corporate line of the village of Stratton, and will connect with the present improved road north of Port Homer.

When the road over the "Narrows," below Yellow Creek, will be surfaced has not been determined, but this project is not likely to be awarded by the state highway department until some definite conclusion has been reached relative to the changing of the road at Yellow Creek, thence into Wellsville.

How often should I change oil?

NO one can truthfully answer this perplexing problem. Unfortunately, it is impossible to specify for all cars, a definite mileage period at which motor oil should be changed.

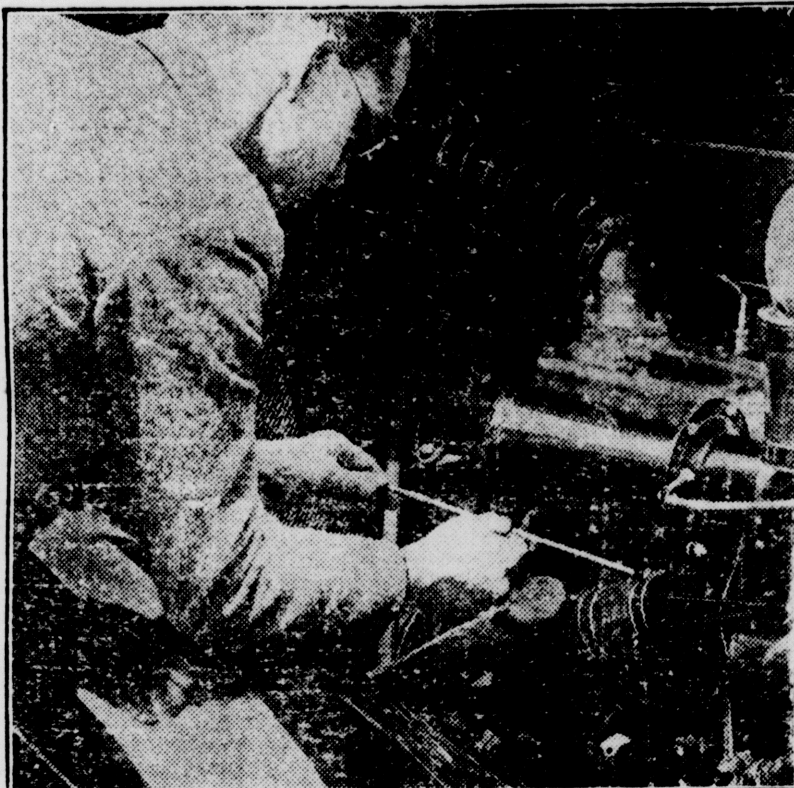

In addition to the quality and grade of lubricant used, these conditions vitally affect the question "how often should I change oil?"

1. Effectiveness of oil filter (if any)
2. Speed at which car is driven
3. Whether operated over dirt or paved roads
4. Volatility of gasoline used

It is not safe to wait until your oil is ready to "break down" before changing. Each motorist must determine for himself, keeping the above conditions in mind, just how often he should change oil.

We believe that New Sohio Motor Oil... free from harmful wax... is unsurpassed in lubricating value and lasting qualities. And we are convinced that if you use New Sohio Motor Oil consistently, giving some attention to the conditions outlined above, your car will receive the most satisfactory lubrication in your experience.

Have your crankcase drained and refilled with New Sohio Motor Oil—free from harmful wax—today!

The same exacting care used in the manufacture and distribution of Sohio Ethyl gasoline is practised in the handling of New Sohio Motor Oil. A tamper-proof, patented cap seal is attached to each drum of New Sohio Oil. This represents the O. K. of the Standard Oil of Ohio on the product, and is your assurance of uniform high quality.

ADVANCED NEW PROCESS REMOVES HARMFUL WAX AT 40° BELOW ZERO

Most manufacturers of good oils now de-wax by centrifugal action, using the principle of the farm cream separator. But the method used in making Sohio Motor Oil performs this vital operation at 40° below zero. The harmful wax is thus completely crystallized and thrown out; what remains is all-lubricant 100% Paraffin base oil—New Sohio Motor Oil. Expect these results:

1. Little or no carbon
2. Flexible viscosity—perfect lubrication at all temperatures
3. Perfect piston seal—full power, least danger of oil dilution

ACTRESS WEARS PARIS CLOTHES

Dorothy Revier, the beautiful Columbia star noted for her graceful figure and her ability to wear elaborate clothes, appears in a number of Paris creations in "Father and Son," a Columbia picture synchronized with dialogue and music, which opened at the Ceramic theater today.

As the fascinating Countess Mottet, a French adventuress, she wears an arresting evening ensemble fashioned of black taffeta and velvet. The close fitting, backless bodice is of flesh marquisette intricately beaded with jet. The long skirt which has an uneven hemline and is slightly bouffant, runs on to the bodice in a design formation. With it she wears a black velvet jacket lined with taffeta. With this ensemble Miss Revier wears her hair in a new ultra-sophisticated, sleek coiffure which she created for this picture and which she was given the name of "Siren."

Jack Holt plays opposite Miss Revier in "Father and Son," a story of love and sacrifice. Members of the supporting cast include Helene Chadwick, Mickey McLean and Wheeler Oakman. Earle C. Kenton directed.

teen Moore's "Smiling Irish Eyes" that is quite as elaborate and entertaining as any Broadway revue.

"Smiling Irish Eyes," which opened at the State theater today, is a 100 per cent talking and singing First National Vitaphone picture, and this stage episode is remarkably realistic. It was arranged by Larry Ceballos, who obtained a splendid reputation in New York as a stage director, through his productions in Irving Berlin's "Music Box Revue," George White's

"Scanlans" and several shows for Zeigfeld.

Colleen Moore makes her debut in dialogue in "Smiling Irish Eyes," and sings several songs written especially for the production, including "Darlin' My Darlin'," "A Wee Bit O' Love," "Then I Can Ride Home With You" and "Smiling Irish Eyes." The latter episode of the picture is brief, most of the story having Ireland as a background. James Hall is Miss Moore's leading man in "Smiling Irish Eyes," which John McCormick produced for First National Vitaphone Pictures.

Now you can see one of the strangest phenomena of the talking screen. Jack Mulhall in the first dual role talking picture.

Upperworld and underworld merge in a wonderful love story. Cop and crook—brothers—vying for the hand of a beautiful girl—with fate forcing them both into a dark street from which only one can return.

Frank Lloyd has imbued it with the drama of "Weary River" and the suspense of "Drag." Jack Mulhall's dual characterization will live as long as your memory.

Come back to Erin! See Colleen as a "Colleen"—Never a part so made for her! Hitch on behind her funny two-wheel cart and come down to the county fair. "Smiling Irish Eyes" is chock-full of romance from the Land of Romance—packed with comedy from the home of wit. And when Colleen bursts into song in three lilting new hit ballads, "Smiling Irish Eyes," "A Wee Bit O' Love" and "Then I Can Ride Home With You," you'll understand why they paid $2.00 per seat to see this picture on Broadway.

EVANGELIST PREACHES ON "ATONEMENT"

Rev. Heslop Discusses Crucifixion in Sermon.

TELLS PURPOSES

Question Box to Feature Friday Night's Service.

That all history pointed to the incarnation and that the Old Testament prophets received faint glimpses of the purpose of God in the incarnation of Christ was affirmed by the Rev. William S. Heslop, D. D., of Olivet, Ill., at the First Nazarene church, on St. Clair avenue, last night. "The types and shadows of the Old Testament all set forth the birth, the life and the crucifixion of Christ," he said. His subject was "The Five-fold Purpose of the Atonement."

He will speak again at the church tonight and on Friday night will answer as many as possible of written questions that have previously been handed him.

To reveal the Father, take away and put away sin, destroy the works of the devil and establish the kingdom of God were the five purposes of the atonement, he pointed out.

He quoted Philip's interrogations: "Show us the Father and it sufficeth us." To which he quoted again Jesus' answer: "He that hath seen me hath seen the Father." Thus, he held, the atonement revealed the Father in Jesus Christ.

"Wilful sins as well as those of ignorance, all failures, mistakes, shortcomings, weaknesses, all misgivings of the mark which is the perfect divine standard Christ took away these sins," he explained. "He who never failed took away human failures. He who never sinned took away mankind's sins. And he who never missed the mark suffered and died for those who had ever missed the mark."

The sin of the heart, he held, was that man in the third purpose of the atonement—the putting away of sin. "This means the principal sin," he said. "It means the inward sin or our old man or the carnal nature which begets it. When Christ died He took away this sin that sinners may be free."

"The works of the devil which the atonement would destroy are the fourth part of its purpose in cleanses sorrow, sickness, pain, death, lawlessness and all iniquity. Christ not only died to save us from our sins, but also to cleanse our hearts from inward sin. He died to make us holy. He also carried our sorrows, bore our illnesses and in dying abolished death and in keeping the law de-

The Los Angeles arrived at the field shortly after one o'clock and after flying over the city and crowd was flown to a point in front of the grandstand where an exhibition was given of the navy's newly perfected stunt of hooking a moving plane onto a trapeze suspended from the big dirigible.

With this accomplished, the Los Angeles was moored to a specially constructed mast in the center of the field, where it will remain until late today before taking off for Lakehurst, N. J., if weather permits.

Still other thrills were stunt flying by Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and his two "high hats" of the navy, army squadron maneuvers, dead stick landing contests, exhibitions of the powers of the auto-gyro by its inventor, Senor Juan La Cueva, glider contests and short races around closed courses.

Yesterday's events and their results are as follows: Philadelphia to Cleveland Derby—Believed won by Erik Williams. Official times not yet determined. Portland to Cleveland Derby—Loren Mendell declared unofficial winner.

for $100,000,000. This country would gladly buy it, but could not. It would not be sold outside the British empire, which shows wisdom.

The suggested sale reminds you of the bargain that Seward got when he bought Alaska for $8,000,000.

But don't forget that there are, proportionately, just as good real estate bargains not far away from where you live. It takes only imagination to identify them.

Big business goes its way steadily, steadily, irresistibly. Standard Oil of Indiana increases capital from $375,000,000 to $450,000,000, issuing 3,000,000 more shares of stock to absorb Pan-American Petroleum.

NO INTELLIGENT American will object to bigger business of any kind, especially bigger oil business.

The great British oil company invades this market, buying North and South American oil fields, opening gasoline and oil stations with great energy, determination and intelligence all over the United States. This makes you realize that the business struggle today is between nations, not between little organizations.

OIL companies on a sufficiently big scale might develop sufficient intelligence not to squander the nation's oil resources as is now done.

IF YOU want respect be able to command.

MISS McMILLAN, LEETONIA, DIES

LEETONIA, O., Aug. 29.—Miss Laura Elizabeth McMILLAN, 71, died yesterday in her home near here, after a two weeks' illness.

Miss McMILLAN was born in Hubbard, O., but had spent practically her entire life in this vicinity. She was a member of the Presbyterian church and active in Sunday school work.

She leaves three brothers, Granville and John McMILLAN, Canton, Ill.; Henry McMILLAN, Leetonia, and three sisters, Mrs. Belle Patterson, Leetonia, and Mrs. Elmer Duryea and Miss Sadie McMILLAN at home.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of the Rev. John D. McBride, pastor of the Leetonia Presbyterian church. Burial will be made in Oakdale cemetery.

He declared the airship would take off for Friedrichshafen probably by Saturday under the command of Captain Ernst Lehman.

Eckener said he would stay behind for about two weeks and visit President Hoover in Washington and go to Akron, Ohio, on business. It is understood he will advise the Zeppelin Goodyear company.

"I have not retired from active dirigible duty and expect to command the Graf Zeppelin on important trips," he said.

"Whether the round-the-world flight of the Graf Zeppelin was a success, I shall leave to the public," said Dr. Eckener. "We suffered slight damage in Tokyo which was repaired in eight hours and we had a narrow escape, perhaps, at Los Angeles when we missed some high voltage wires."

But I believe I am truthful in saying that there were no serious hazards during our entire trip.

Thanks Government.
"I am deeply moved by the cordiality of the reception given us by the whole American nation and we feel deeply grateful.

"Our reception was particularly impressive in San Francisco and the great ovation we received in Los Angeles will never be forgotten. Also, as we flew over Chicago there was more enthusiasm than I have ever experienced before in my life.

"But most of all, I am grateful for the cordiality and co-operation of the United States government and navy department.

"I am very happy at the intense interest shown by the people of the United States in the lighter-than-air machine. Two years ago the interest was not so strong and now after this flight I believe the public interest will pave the way for the lighter-than-air machine to put itself on the map of aviation."

Dr. Eckener then went on the radio and sent his greetings in German to his native land.

Lady Hay in a brief radio speech said the trip "was wonderful," and that she was very happy to be back in America.

CHILD DIES FROM POISON

Death Caused From Strychnine Intended For Dogs.

WILMINGTON, O., Aug. 29.—(INS)—Citizens of Harveysburg, near here, were in a state of alarm today and authorities there were incensed over the fatal poisoning of a 3-year-old boy, Richard Moore, by supposed "dog-killers."

More than 20 dogs have also been poisoned by strychnine during the past two weeks. Chickens and cats have also perished by this means.

The little child found a piece of bread in the yard of his home and proceeded to eat it. He died 15 minutes later. It was first thought that the little boy had died from "rat-poisoning," but a complete examination of the body showed evidences of strychnine.

The coroner has sent the child's stomach to a Cincinnati laboratory for analysis. Authorities at Harveysburg state they will file charges against the "dog poisoners" if they can be found.

Meanwhile, they are conducting a search for the persons who made recent large purchases of the deadly substance. The Moore's own dog and it is not known how the poison-laden bread was placed in the yard, for the baby to eat and die.

INSPECT NEW STORE ROOMS

Fred Winland, president of the Winland Brothers Lumber company, left today on an inspection of completed store rooms erected through the west for the Metropolitan chain stores. Inspections will be made at Acheson, Kas., Enid, Okla., and Oakland, Calif.

Work on new store rooms in Vancouver and Long View, Wash., will begin as soon as Winland arrives. Of the 11 new locations opened this year by the chain concern, nine have been built by the Winland company.

Irun, Spain, will have an airport custom house.

NEWPORT PLANS NEW CASINO

NEWPORT, R. I.—A new Casino costing several hundred thousand dollars is being urged upon the directors of the Spouting Rock Beach association, owners of the exclusive Bailey's Beach, as the solution of the problem of beach congestion.

The crowded condition of the comparatively small strip of sand has inspired a number of suggestions for the relief of the society bathers who have outgrown the original bathing pavilion. The plan, providing for a new Casino, house, not only bathing facilities, but also a gathering hall, swimming pools, tennis courts and a cafeteria, has been urged repeatedly and has met with the favor of a number of the stockholders of the association.

RIVERSIDES

Why you can save $2 to $15 on every tire you buy at WARD'S

MILLIONS OF MOTORISTS, all over the world, already ride on RIVERSIDE Tires—and still more millions soon will.

You will agree that . . . with the Super-Service RIVERSIDE guaranteed for a minimum of 30,000 miles—the First-Quality RIVERSIDE guaranteed for a minimum of 16,000 miles—and the WARDWEAR for 10,000 . . . these tires simply must be tires of quality!

And then—on comparing RIVERSIDE prices with many other high-grade makes that are not officially guaranteed for any specific mileage—you are astonished to find that at Ward's your saving per tire ranges from $2 to $15!

It's surprising. You are frankly puzzled. You discovered, long ago, that there's no such thing as "getting something for nothing." Therefore, when you find, in tires, high quality, provable quality and guaranteed quality . . . coupled with prices so low they seem to contradict all that . . . you "wonder," don't you?

You needn't! For the simple explanation lies in Ward's plan of selling to the user direct.

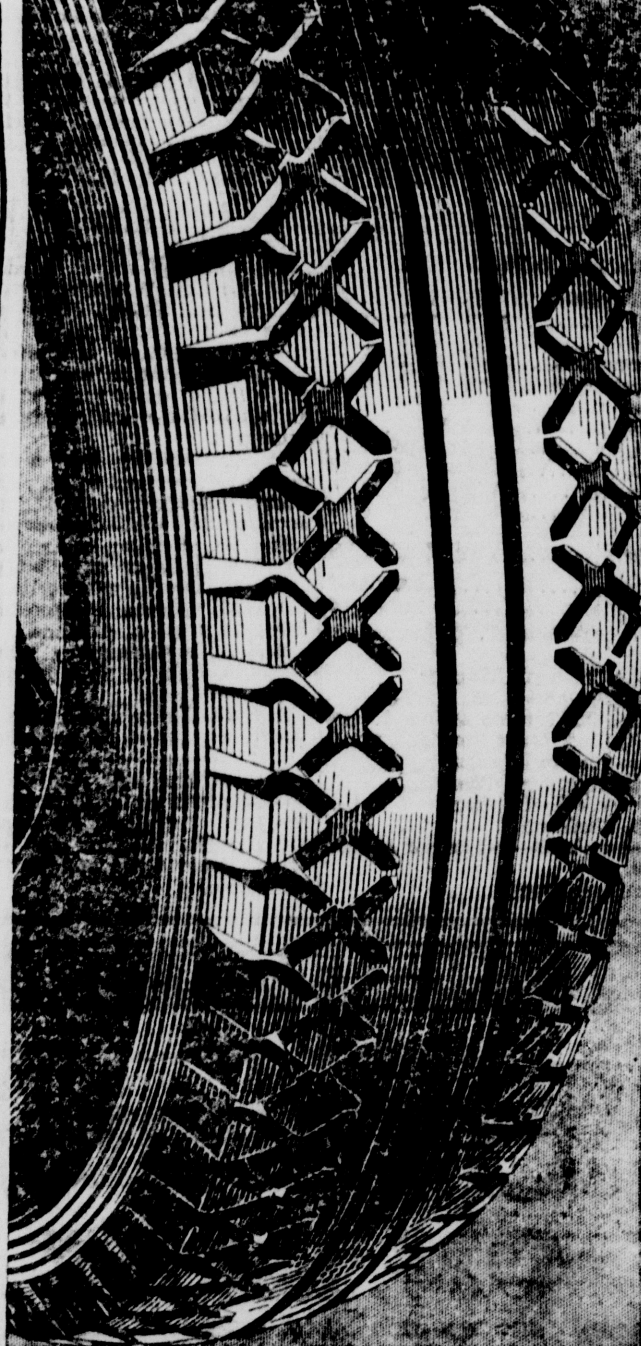

Instead of cutting quality in any shape or manner, we merely cut out most of the in-between profits of ordinary distribution! Thus you are protected at both ends of your transaction: on Quality, by the guarantees . . . on Economy, by the unusual savings of Ward's low prices.

Do you know of—or need—any better reasons for putting Montgomery Ward & Co. tires on your car? . . . Or any better arguments than these facts proving why you save $2 to $15 on every tire you buy?

Don't buy any other tire unless more miles are guaranteed!

INTER-CITY LOOP TRIO IN PENNANT BATTLE

Chester Loses 2-1 Contest

Wellsville Wins to Move up Notch in Race.

ALL the bingles the Chester and the Wellsville Inter-City league clubs collected in four and a half innings of battling last night at Nicholson Field could be counted on the fingers of just one hand; count 'em, five fingers and five hits, and Wellsville copped, 2 to 1, although they got only two of the swats and Chester the big share.

The victory put the Wellsville club a half game behind the two league leaders, Laughlin and the Kates who are tied for the top berth.

Simcox and Cal Wagner were the sluggers of the combat the pair lifting the ball over the right field fence for doubles.

Bad Sainor twirled to the visitors and permitted three hits but his performance was marred slightly by five passes.

Walky Kimble started on the hilltop for Chester. He pitched three innings and was relieved by Springer in the fourth. Kimble gave the home nine two hits.

With two away in the first Pete Cebula fumbled G. Wagner's grounder. Wagner stole second and continued to third on Hunsellman's wide peg to second. He scored on Cal Wagner's double over the right field fence.

The Nicholson nine tallied its winning run in the second. Bill Talbot got a walk went to second and unrelievedly finished on Campbell's single to right center.

The visitors prevented a shut-out in the third, scoring their sole tally. Campbell walked, moved up on Parsons' sacrifice and scored on Simcox's double over the right field fence. But they made another strong bid for the game in the last. With one gone, M. Cebula was safe on Tobin's error. Simcox's singled to left, put Mike on second. Both advanced on Cox's out at first but Marshall fanned for the third out.

Bush Drops Bucs' Helm; Jewell Ens In Charge

Quits Bucs

Donnie Bush

No Ill Feeling, Declares Donie; Says he Simply Wanted to Quit.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 29.—The Pittsburgh National League baseball club, which slumped within a brief period from first place to a position more than a dozen games behind the league leaders, played under new management yesterday following the sudden resignation of Owen J. (Donie) Bush, aggressive little pilot.

Jewell Ens, a coach, was named acting manager after President Barney Dreyfuss had accepted Bush's resignation. Dreyfuss intimated he would retain Ens as manager next season if the Buccaneers made a good showing the remainder of the 1929 race.

Bush, returning to Pittsburgh today from a disastrous eastern trip during which his charges lost twelve out of seventeen games, submitted his resignation soon after his arrival. No reason for the action was advanced by either Bush or Dreyfuss. Bush said he "simply desired to quit" and that no ill feeling existed, either with the players or the owner. Dreyfuss wished Bush success in the future.

During Bush's three-year managerial reign, the Pirates won a National league flag and never failed to cross the line in the money. The diminutive skipper came to Pittsburgh from the management of the Indianapolis American association club, and stepped into the shoes of Bill McKechnie, present St. Louis Cardinal leader, who left the Pirates after the Adams-High-Carey blowup.

During Bush's tenure, Kiki Cuyler was benched and the Pirate owner upheld Donie despite loud protests from the fans. Later Cuyler was sent to the Chicago Cubs.

Prior to connecting with Indianapolis, Bush was manager of the Washington Americans.

INTER-CITY LEAGUE

Closer than a bunch of bananas the three top teams in the Inter-City league face a tough scrimmage in the final five games of the season. Case on October 25 will be the first home conference game for Mount.

This will be the first time that Coach John M. Thorpe has taken one of his own teams to Ann Arbor, though he was center for Mount Union when, under Coach "Bob" Dawson, a Michigan alum, the first Mount eleven journeyed to Ann Arbor in 1913. For eight years Mount continued on Michigan's schedule and last fall grid relations were resumed when the Wolverine team appeared in Alliance.

Michigan has scheduled a double header for September 28, Albion college playing the first game. Mount's 1929 schedule follows:

Sept. 28, Michigan at Ann Arbor.
Oct. 6, Defiance at Alliance.
Oct. 12, Oberlin at Oberlin.
Oct. 19, Wooster at Wooster.
Oct. 16, Case at Alliance.
Nov. 2, Muskingum at Alliance.
Nov. 9, Kenyon at Alliance.
Nov. 16, Open.
Nov. 23, Hiram at Alliance.
Nov. 28, Akron at Alliance.

Negotiations between the British Broadcasting corporation and the Baird Television Development company for casting stations in Britain have been broken off by the company.

Arrested at Iserehn, Westphalia, a beggar was found to own a motorcycle on which he had ridden from his home at Dusseldorf, then placed it in a garage before beginning "business" on the streets.

Luis Vicenti, Chilean lightweight, has been signed by Paddy Marmon, fight promoter, to meet Sammy Mandell, world's light weight champion, in a ten-round nonchampionship fight on September 6 in Chicago.

BUCS COP TWO UNDER NEW PILOT

Beat Cubs in Double; Grimes Wins 17th.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 29.—Striking from behind in both games yesterday the Pirates handed the Cubs a double lacing, 10 to 3 and 7 to 6, as Jewell Ens, former coach, succeeded Donie Bush as the Buccaneers' manager.

Burling Grimes registered his seventeenth victory and the first since his injury in July in the initial fray, the Pirates assaulting Perce Malone for five runs in the sixth and four more in the seventh. Kiki Cuyler's homer with one on stalked the Bruins to a 3 to 1 lead in the third frame.

Rogers Hornsby batted Chicago into a four run margin in the seventh inning of the nightcap, but Ken Peeler yielded three markers in the home half, one of them on Dick Bartell's homer within the park. The assault was continued against Penner, Mike Cveugros and Guy Bush in the next round, with the result that Pittsburgh scored two more runs to win. The defeat was charged to Cveugros.

The Pirates' uprising reduced the Cubs' lead from fourteen and one half games to a mere twelve and one half.

Champion To Box At Junction

Cuban Title Holder To Face Willie Davies.

WILLIE DAVIES, Charleroi flyweight, general credited with being the uncrowned champion of the 112-pound division as a result of his victory over Frankie Genaro at Braddock a few weeks ago, holds no fear for wearers of Flitana's royal purple.

Close on the heels of his conquest over national throne holder of the flyweights under N. B. A. recognition, Davies will face Genaro Pino, the flyweight and bantamweight champion of Cuba, next Thursday night, Sept. 5, at Junction park.

Matchmaker Ray Founts has been after the match all summer and finally has succeeded in landing it. Pino will come from Daventry, Ia., accompanied by his manager, Duke Barry, Chicago, publisher of the Boxing Pine Book.

Flyweights, lightweight, welterweights combine to produce a well balanced card at the Junction punch party.

The semifinals brings together Mickey Solomon of New Castle against Nick Polls of Alliquippa. Polls will carry the fight to Solomon and as a result considerable action is expected in this brawl.

Young Teddy Yarosz, Monaca, will tackle George Bretch, Pittsburgh, national champion of the junior welterweights in the amateur rankings last year, in another six rounder. Yarosz, victor in five consecutive bouts, faces his toughest battle because Bretch, while young, is an experienced mauler.

Young Cuddy DeMarco, New Brighton, a Beaver valley athletic star, faces Bad News Johnny Morgan in a four rounder at 155 pounds, and Tommy Moran, Pittsburgh, brother of Midget Mike, tackles Joe Potts, Charleroi, in another.

Confident of the class of the card and anticipating a record breaking crowd, the Junction park promoters are installing 500 additional seats for this show. Duets are available here at Frank Diamond's.

Ens Gets Off to Good Start as Pirate Pilot.

By Henry McLemore.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Pittsburgh's Pirates are thoughtful and considerate, if nothing more.

For busy as they are in their seeming determination to see just how far they can descend before the National race draws to a close they took time off yesterday to give their new manager a boost in the eyes of Boss Barney Dreyfus. The Bucs were forced to come to two well-directed kicks at the Chicago Cubs and both took effect.

As a result the Chicagoans are leading by 12 1/2 games today and Mr. Ens must look exactly like what the doctors ordered to Dreyfus. The Bucs were forced to come from behind in both engagements. Trailing at 3 to 1 at the fifth inning of the opener they assailed the Cubs for five runs in the sixth and four more in the seventh to tie. Burleigh Grimes his seventh win of the season. The second game was pulled out of the fire by three runs in the seventh and two more in the eighth for a 7 to 6 victory. This despite Roger Hornsby's thirtieth homer of the year.

All other National clubs enjoyed a holiday from regularly scheduled games. The Giants, however, traveled to Bridgeport and whipped that Eastern league club, 6 to 4.

The Athletics left New York for home with an even break in their two-game series with the Yankees, copping the final yesterday, 9 to 7. A five-run rally in the seventh did the A's cause no harm. Babe Ruth smacked his thirty-sixth homer, Gehrig his twenty-eighth and Larry his fourth during the afternoon.

Late inning rallies being the order of the day, Washington scored three times in the eighth inning to whip Boston, 7 to 4, in the only other game in the American.

George Goslin probably set some sort of record when his home run cleared the fence and dislocated a shoulder of a girl in a nearby yard.

Miss Elizabeth Palmer of Manchester, England, who recently celebrated her one-hundredth birthday, has never seen a movie.

Mechanically-drawn glass is in such demand that all factories in Belgium producing it are working at full capacity and many new plants are being built.

PACIFIC CHAMPION DEFEATED

Mrs. Leona Pressler Bows in Western Tourney.

By Paul Bixler.

MAYFIELD COUNTRY CLUB, CLEVELAND, Aug. 29.—The reign of Mrs. Leona Pressler of Los Angeles, as golf champion of western women was ended today as a narrow field of eight, a 16-year-old high school girl in the limelight among them, teed off this morning in the quarter-finals of the women's western golf tournament here.

The title which Mrs. Pressler has held for two years was swept from her grasp in the second round yesterday by an old opponent and good match player, Mrs. Lee Mida of Chicago. The score was two and one.

With the former champion eliminated, interest among the gallery today was focused on two matches: The one between Mrs. Harley Higbee of Detroit and Mrs. O. S. Hill, the Kansas City star, and the match between Little Miss Leona Nelson, the 16-year-old high school girl, who created furore yesterday by her sensational defeat of Miss Virginia Van Wie, the Chicago star, one up, and Miss Kathleen Wright of Los Angeles.

Miss Wright won over Miss Ann Kennedy of Tulsa, three and one in the second round.

Petite Miss Nelson—she scarcely looks old enough to be called "Miss"—was popularity itself in today's matches. This is her first year in major competition, and her fans already see a great golfing future for her.

The girl player outdrove Miss Van Wie, who was having trouble with her wood shots and irons in yesterday's match. She finished the last nine holes with a 39—the best of the day.

A great match is expected between Mrs. Higbee and Mrs. Hill. These two have been matched twice previously and have split them. Miss Higbee is recognized as one of the steadyest shot-makers of the tournament, while Mrs. Hill is always considered a dangerous threat. The Detroit woman defeated Miss Helen Mac Morran of Chicago five and three yesterday and Mrs. Hill disposed of Eva May Johnson of Chicago, four and two.

Other matches on the quarter-final schedule today are those between Mrs. Lee Mida of Chicago and Mrs. Greg Litar of Los Angeles, and between Miss Bernice Wall of Oshkosh, Wis., and Miss Peggy Watties of Buffalo.

HOOSIERS LOSE TWO TO TOLEDO

Columbus, Louisville Tied in Fifth Place.

Once again, which is ever so often, the fans find the fourth, fifth and sixth positions in the American association pennant race a muddle. That is the fact today.

Columbus and Louisville are tied for fifth which means that one of them must accept the sixth place for the season is much older.

To make things a little more incoherent Indianapolis is only a half a game ahead of both the Senators and the Colonels.

Toledo's surprising feat of taking both games of a doubleheader from the Hoosiers yesterday is responsible for the latter development. The Mudhens in last place were out to do or to die and with their backs against the wall they fought like Trojans until both of the ball games were theirs by 3 to 2 and 10 to 4 scores.

Louisville and Columbus renewed their old feud and the Colonels, taking advantage of rugged fielding and pitching on the part of the Senators, drew forth an 8 to 7 victory. They hope to do better today, but then, so does Columbus.

Two other upsets were recorded yesterday. Milwaukee, seventh position nine, took a 3 to 2 win when it met Minneapolis, which is in third place.

St. Paul completed the riotous day by coming out on the long end of a 9 to 7 score in its game with Kansas City, the league leaders.

St. Paul is in second place, so many games behind the cowboys that they can't be counted on both feet.

Standings, which will probably be changed somewhat today, are:

Team	W	L	Pct.
Kansas City	89	43	.674
St. Paul	78	73	.595
Minneapolis	73	59	.553
Indianapolis	62	71	.466
Columbus	61	71	.462
Louisville	61	71	.462
Milwaukee	53	79	.402
Toledo	51	81	.386

Games today are: Louisville at Columbus; Toledo at Indianapolis; St. Paul at Kansas City (two games); Minneapolis at Milwaukee (two games).

"BIG GAME"

Story of a girl who thought love more powerful than society.

By Vida Hurst

"Dear Mona:
"What about the girl you were so anxious to help? We have heard nothing from her and Miss Maitland is leaving this week. Please let me hear from you fairly soon regarding this matter."
"I understand you are having a gay time in New York. Rather quiet here. Nothing doing but work!"
"Sincerely yours,
"Bruce Berlon."

Looking it over again she saw that it had been dictated, which accounted for some of the formality. But why had he felt it necessary to dictate a letter to HER? "Oh, what does it matter?" she thought, impatiently crumpling the envelope, then smoothing it out, because she intended to answer it.

For a long time she sat staring at the girl reflected in the mirror. Then remembering the other letters, she drew out the heavily monogrammed French paper which had been signed by Mabel.
"My Dear Mona:
"Hope you're feeling better than I do. Jim insists that I walk a mile a day. Can you feature that? I started to Ruth's one day and got so weak I had to sit down on somebody's steps. Needless to say I shall NOT try that again...
"No excitement since you left. Ruth is helping me make baby clothes. She thinks it's thrilling, she WOULD! Of course I appreciate her help, but I miss you a lot. We never have any parties any more and Bruce works nearly every night. At least he SAYS he's working...
"He brought me a gorgeous negligee from Chicago last week. Or child chiffon with ostrich trimming. You know the kind a man always selects. But I got an awful kick out of the idea of Bruce Berlon buying it...
"Read on, Mona! Take your medicine like a lady. It's coming to you...
"But the letter ended on the melancholy note which seemed now to have become a part of Mabel's personality.
"I think of you so often there in New York having a heavenly time. And then I wonder why I, who love excitement more than any of the three of us, should be the one to go through THIS. It makes me very bitter, Mona. I can't say anything about it to Ruth because she's such a sentimental idiot she wouldn't understand. But you know what I mean. And I wish you were here so I could cry on your shoulder..."
Mona opened Ruth's.
"Darling Mona:
"How are you anyway? Your letters sound as if you were having a marvelous time. Mabel and I have been making baby clothes. Isn't that exciting? She doesn't expect her baby until April but her mother said she might not feel like doing any sewing later. The fact of the matter is, I do most of the work, while Mabel lies on the davenport and smokes. Although Jim has insisted that she give up smoking. She doesn't do it when Bruce is around and sometimes I think she's pining for me to tell him. Daddy says Mabel has a weak heart, and while, of course, she would be perfectly furious if it would be for her own good...
"Bruce is adorable. Looks at her as if he could fall down and worship. It must be wonderful to have a man like that in love with you. Worth enduring any amount of suffering...
"Little fool," raged Mona. And THIS was the line Jim thought all men preferred.
Ruth raved on for several pages. Her letters always carried extra stamps. But toward the end Mona was surprised to read, "I've had my first proposal, darling. I know you can guess WHO. It makes me feel awfully grown up and a little sad. Because I don't feel as I SHOULD. Daddy has advised us to wait and just be good friends until I know my own mind. So that's what we're doing with no obligations on either side. But I know you'd be interested..."
And this from Johnnie! "I haven't written before because I was hurt when you left without telling me goodbye. How can you be so unkind to me, Mona? Hallow-e'en night you were so sweet I began to think you really cared, but now I'm wondering again... My feelings toward you never change, though, no matter what you do. I'm ordering flowers sent to you for Thanksgiving. I hope you'll like them and remember I am always your faithful Johnnie!"
Mona smiled. Dear Johnnie! She'd marry him some day.
Dan wrote:
"Hi Sweet Thing:
"Do you know how much I miss you? You've positively taken all the kick out of Minneapolis. And with or without your invitation I'm coming to N. Y. C. Be there around the holidays. In any case save New Year's Eve!"
"Of course, if you wish to 'include' all other friends on the party it's all right with me but one way or another we're going to be together. You know if you're to have that collection of jewels you expect to cherish in your old age we'll have to start pretty soon. Be ready to select your first one as Christmas gift. We'll go shopping on Fifth Avenue, shall we, Mona?"
To this she replied, "I'm absolutely dizzy to think you're coming 'Noo Yawk.' But, darling, is shopping on Fifth Avenue an adventure worthy of my FIRST Jew-el? I thought it was to be India or China or some such place."
To Bruce, with compressed lips and eyes dark with pain, she wrote:
"Dear Bruce: I was unable to discover Rosalie Watson's address before I left although I sent her a letter 'general delivery.' It was good of you to offer to help but I'm afraid we'll have to let the matter drop since you need a stenographer immediately."

"Place told Mabel I received her letter and will answer it soon. With best regards for you both, 'Mona.'"

She mailed it with regret twisting like a sword in her heart. On the way home, however, she called Ronnie from the drug store and suggested that he think up some "exciting" deal to do. Their plans for "exciting" deal or less successful. And as Mona had suspected, her cousin's friends were delightedly willing to "show her around."

Mona did not like to look back on those weeks before Christmas. Her one desire was constant, absorbing occupation. And while Aunt Sophia's ideas were far from exciting, she did manage to consume a great many hours of the girl's time.
Mona was too gracious to be sullen. Too proud to let her aunt suspect her of a broken heart. She agreed, cheerfully, to the dull plans. Shopped, walked or rode to "places of interest." Spent hours in museum and library. Attended concerts and lectures. Never bored! She had an infallible method of her own for escaping the most tiresome speaker. For she had only to let her attention wander a bit to be in Minneapolis. Sitting with Ruth and Mabel as they sewed on baby clothes. Watching Bruce as he worked, or back in the earlier days of their budding friendship.

But these memories, while absorbing, took their toll of her vitality. Mornings found her listless and reluctant to rise. Her cheeks, whitened beneath their soft coating of rouge, as ominously as the most of-fashioned heroines.

A feverish longing for excitement animated her. With the approach of evening she became increasingly vivacious. Even Ronnie, accustomed as he was to late hours, found himself hard driven to keep up.

When Brick Bryant, dramatic critic on one of the morning papers, developed a fondness for his cousin, Ronnie was openly relieved.

Love-making bored him. He informed her, crossly, that he had discovered long ago that an indiscriminating Creator had made all women alike.

But he insisted that she amused him because she was "natural." And he took her to first nights with a regularity which compensated for his rudeness.

Mona found him stimulating and Aunt Sophia was pleased because she was sure Ronnie would know only the "nicest" young men.

She had confessed to Mona on the way to New York that her boy was "as pure as a lily."

In fact, he was almost "too shy" where girls were concerned.

Mona's observation led her to suspect otherwise, but she was glad no one else was in a position to disillusion the doting mother.

Her own experiences in New York were not startling. Her recent emotional disturbance seemed to hang between her and the men she met like an impalpable veil.

Making her see them from a viewpoint which chilled advances and gave her the added advantage of being able to watch affairs going on about her.

Of these Ronnie's was the most obvious. He was enamoured of a lady, who fancied herself a superwoman.

Mavis Reed was slinky, doll-colored "robos" and went in for various cults.

She gave the younger girl a "pain" with her husky, emotional voice and constant striving for effects.

And although Mona attended her studio parties she was not able to discover just what variety of artist Mavis was.

Smiling Mona Lisa like to the girl's frank question, Mavis had said, "Oh, I sing a little and dance sometimes. But I can only do so when impelled to express my inmost emotions."

After watching her in one of these moments of artistic compulsion, Mona decided it was just as well. She could not understand her cousin's intensified gaze nor his rapt, "Wonderful! That was simply tremendous!"

It seemed easier to comply with Brick Bryant's snort of disgust and ride, "Let's go for some air."

As they taxied home, Brick expressed HIMSELF with biting, caustic terms which made Mona twice although she agreed with him.

And never afterward was she able to be quite so fond of Cousin Ronnie.

Christmas dragged as only Christmas can when one is young and disappointed in love. A brisk walk and the sight of merry faces lifted to the gently falling snow failed to revive Mona's spirits.

She had received gifts from the girls, a check from her father, and the usual books and flowers from New York friends.

Johnnie sent a 10-pound box of Sherry's and American Beauties. Dan telegraphed his good wishes and the information that he wished to select her gift later.

But none of these could atone for the lack of a message from Bruce. She had thought absence would cure her of her infatuation, but its roots had been deeper than she realized.

Seeing unfamiliar faces had only made HIS face more dear. The memory of his sweet, rather tired, smile seemed more real to her than any laughter. And she loved him! Oh, how she loved him! So much that she could even hope he might find happiness without her.

Never at any time had Mona rebelled at the situation. Her hopeless submission sickened her, but she knew no remedy for it. She simply could not blame anyone. Certainly not Bruce!

Nor do you want to miss seeing and driving the remarkable new Chrysler "66"—lower in price than any six that ever before bore the name of Chrysler—a new creation already proclaimed far and wide as the foremost six-cylinder value of the times.
